COL. MARSHALL'S SPEECH ON SATURDAY Fulton The unusual pressure upon our editoiral du- Graves ties and the excitement consequent upon the election through which we have just passed, have Livingston prevented us heretofore from properly noticing the speech of Humphrey Marshall delivered at the court house on Saturday night last. That speech, if correctly reported to us, stamps | Uni Humphrey Mershall as the bloody Robespiere of the Know Nothing party. In its disregard for the equal rights of American citizenship; in its violation of the proprieties of partisan warfare; in its appeals to the baser passions of human nature, and in its trampling under foot and spurning all offers of conciliation and peace, the Sat-eminent in atrocious violence. We beg our readers to call in mind the circum. stances under which that speech was delivered. For several weeks before the minds of our citizens had been wrought up to the highest point of political excitement. As the day of the election drew near, that excitement was increasing in bitterness and intensity. On all sides were heard expressions of apprehension and fear that the bloody violence of August 1855 would be repeated. Onr oldest and lest citizens—the men who have grown up with the city and made it what it is-stood aghast at the prospect before them, and the enquiry became universal: "Cannot something be done that shall ensure peace and 1,7 quiet on the 4th of November?" This enquiry, so anxiously made' was nobly responded to by the city authorities. The proclamations of the Mayor and the Chief of Police were producing a Ha quieting effect on the public mind. The leaders Lo of both political parties consulted to-gether and Mo agreed upon terms which were conciliatory and satisfactory. The press on both sides became less violent and denunciatory, and counselled mod-f eration and peace. In a word, the great mass o our citizens were laboring sincerely and effetually our citizens were laboring sincerely and effetually to produce a state of things which should even to produce a state of things which should be also be a state of things which should be a state of things whic of November, and thus to some extent wipe out the disgrace which had attached to our city since the memorable August of 1855.

While the citizens of Louisville were thus doing all in their power to tranquilize the public mind, and when our men of property and means were "breathing freer and easier" in view of the improved prospect before them, it was announced that Humphrey Marshall, the member of Congress from this District, was to deliver the closing speech of the campaign. As a matter of course every body expected that that speech would be in accordance with the public desire—firm in de-heard from, is 1081. Clarke's majority in the The transactions have been of a very limited fence of the party in whose favor it was delivered, but prudent and conciliatory in tone and general spirit. This the people of Louisville expected and had a right to demand, and this every man who prefered the interest of his country before the interest of his party would cheerfully

Not so Humphrey Marshall, the Chinese ex-Commissioner and Chief of Southern Know Nothings. He has no property in Louisville to be depreciated or destroyed, therefore what cares he for the material interests of Louisville. The three thousand dollars a year of the people's money which he manages to pocket, pays him only for his partisanship he can't afford to be patriot. He therefore, came with looks of defiance in his eye and tones of insolence in his voice and addressed us as the infuriated partisan and not a the wise and prudent statesman. He used his eloquence and talents not to smooth the turbulen waves of partisan fury, but to lash them into more destructive violence. He called upon hi Know Nothing friends "to vote at all hazards peacably if you can, but forcibly if you must. We all know by sad experience what is the fear ful import of this language in the mouths of Know Nothing orators, and we instinctivel associate it with violence, bloodshed and murder The remembrance of "lloody Monday" will no soon die out of the minds of the citizens of Louis that wiser counsels prevailed than those given by Humphrey Marshall. Men voted in peace and quiteness, and Louisville stands partly redeemed from her former infamy.

Had Marshall succeeded in his infamous designs the glorious flag of our country would to-day be drooping with fatricidal blood, and the fate of our city would have been irrevocably sealed.

Humphrey Marshall may possibly again be a candidate for the suffrages of our citizens, but if so, he will find that the mark of Cain is upon him, and that his infamous speech of the 1st of November will not soon be forgotten.

It is stated that the whole white male population of the United States over 21 years of age, and, to be presumed, entitled to vote, is about 5,100,000, and yet the votes cast at a Presidential election seldom exceed 3,100,000, leaving 2,000,0000, of inhabitants who do not use their franchise. In the State of New York, in 1852, the voting population exceeded 800,- 548. It gave 000, yet the votes returned did not much exceed 500,000. In Massachusetts, the white males over 21 are nearly 300,000, and yet the vote in 1852 was only 133,000, showing that nearly two thirds of the adult population, for some cause or other, had staid away from the potls. OLDEST NEGRO YET. We have at last got hold of a particular old negro. There has been countless cases of tolerably advanced blacks, but the case below, which we coppy from an exchange, is said to be perfectly authentic, and finishes the list. She ought to be shown around: Some time ago I sent you an account of an old negro man, who died in Charleston ot the advanced age of 113 years. Since then I have seen a statement of a negro woman, who died in Fauquier county, Va., aged 140. A friend, who was formerly an officer in the United States Army, relates that when he was stationed at Pas Christian in Louisians. Christian, in Louisiana, he was in the habit, with his brother officers, of visiting an aged negrees who sold buttermilk. On one occasion the following conversation took place:

"Old woman, how old are you?" dunno, Massa." "How long have you lived about here?"
"O, long time, long time, massa." She then went on to relate circumstances in connection with the history of the country, which proved that she must have arrived at a very advanced aged. "Well, can't you refer to any circumstance by

Tobacco.—The market has grown firmer since our last. Poor lugs command $8, and the rul-ing average rates have been 8 50a$9. Leaf is very firm with a decided upward tendency. The finer qualities are held with great firmness; and several speculators are awaiting the full develop 000 ment of the "frost-panic" in the various tobac markets of America and Europe. Nearly all the offerings have been taken by City manufacturers. One The first shipments from the region tributary to Oweusboro, since the advent of low water, were received at Todd's since our last. The highest prices realized were for two hhds Virginia Leaf, sold at Ninth Street Warehouse, at 16 25a17 75 We quote Lugs, common and light weight 0 00a8 8 00; Do, full shipping weight, 8 00a9 00 Medium Leaf, 8 50 $10; Prime Leaf, 10 50a$13 Extra Choice Manufacturing Leaf, 13 50 to the highest figure obtained this season for Kentucky 22 75, depending entirely upon the quality and competition by resident manufacturers. Hogs.—As before remarked, upwards of 100,-000 hogs have been contracted for around the Falls, at various prices, which if made public would form no basis for present operations. A few sales were effected early in the week at $4a 4 25, holders generally demand 4 25 gross, at est, and we cannot expect any activity until the packers commence killing. According to the Cincinnati Price Current the feeling in that market is decidedly subdued, and the general disposition manifested is that of holding back until the market fairly opens. No speculative feeling whatever is exhibited.

COUNTRY MEAT.—The receipts have been very light, with an exceedingly dull market at the decline noticed in our last review. We quote plain hams at 9\frac{1}{2}a10\frac{1}{2}c., according to trim and cure, clear sides 7c., ribbed do. 6c., shoulders 6c., bbl. lard 10c., keg 10\frac{1}{2}a11c.

The manufacturers of St. Louis have curtailed their operations, and their wants are limited. ws The few lots received last week were sold below

Health and Long Life to All. DR. ROBACK'S SCANDINAVIAN REMEDIES. At last the grand object of medical science is attained—lir. Roback's Scandinavian Remedies acinally perform what thousands have promised, but never accomplished. They purge from the blood the corrupt particles which create and leved disease. The basis of all the solid portions of the body is the blood, and if that fluid is pure, the whole organization must necessarily be rigorous, hardy and healthful. Hence in the preparation and community of the ingredients of his lamonts Scandinavian Remedies, Br. Roback's great object was to produce medicine which should disnice the blood in all cases. He succeeded, and the consequence is, that the operation of his succeeded, and the consequence is, that the operation of his scandinavian Blood Puriler and Blood Pilis, and in Scandinavian Blood Puriler and Blood Pilis, and the country clement, literally extinguishing the disability of the proposed of the devouring clement, literally extinguishing the proposed of the devouring clement, literally extinguishing the consequence is the devouring clement, interally extinguishing the proposed of the devouring clement, interally extinguishing the consequence is the devouring clement. the devotating element, literally extinguishing the inallady.

Persons suffering from debility from childhood, find new vigor infused into them by these wonderful life-lengthening restoratives. They coul the heat of tever, create appetite, required the bowels, promote sleep, invigorate the reproductive organs in both sexes, control all disorder of the liver, cure sores, boils, eximing small all skin diseases, and by imparting to the vital linid new elements of health, liverally make life a pleasarine, instead of the weirrsome probation which it must always be to the invalid. These remedies are composed solely of Swedish herbs, of rare medicinal voture, never hefore infroduced in the practice or plarmacy.

Physicians of the highest order in the discoverer's natively hand, and in other parts of Europe, have certified to the mediciness, and they have never yet been administered without being followed with marked success it is impossible to enumerate in an advertisemnt a ten of flice of plaints for which they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted, and for the simple reason that they are not adapted.

Ilra. Roback—Dear Sir: I have read in the newspapers many accounts of cures effected by your Scandinavian Remedies, but consider my own case at least as interesting and marvelons as any of them. So far as you are concerned, one testimonal more or less is of little consequence. Your fame is established, and my statement cannot add to your celebrity. But, for the benefit of my led low-creatures, a desire to make known the facls. When I called upon you at the instance of a dear triend, out the 21st of March Last, I had been 9 years a sufferer from Chatrer. The irritation of the nerves and membrane on the head was so intense that some times It almost drove me crazy. I could not sleep, and was never free from un pleasantsensations. At various times tive different physicians had standed me. Each one treated me in his own way, but none of them did me any good. I despaired of ever seeing another well day, and when I called at your consultation-rooms had very little hope of rebef. By your advice I entered immediately upon a course of your Beandinavian Blood Purifier and Blood Pills. I was encouraged by the cheertul, hopeful way in which you spoke, and I resolved strickly to follow your directions. In less than a week all the worst symptoms of my complaint began to take a mider form, and so continued to improve from week all we worst symptoms of my complaint began to take a mider form, and so continued to improve from week all the worst symptoms of my complaint began to take a mider form, and so continued to improve thom week all the worst symptoms of my complaint began to take a mider form, and so continued to improve thom week all the worst symptoms of my complaint began to take a mider form, and so continued to improve thom week all the worst symptoms of my complaint began to take a mider form, and so continued to improve them were building up ny strength ind fortifying my constitution. The Cincinnati Commercial has the folowing good hit at the Fillmourners: The Fillmourners have been looking with longing eyes toward all points of the compass, praying that something would turn up, or down, that the Presidential election could be carried nto the House, where they hoped to perform feats of diplomacy, intrigue, bargain, fraud, and corruption sufficient to make Fillmore President. They have died hard, and have seemed determin ed to wring fortune from fate itself. But Kentucky would not go for Fillmore—not a single Northern State would go for him—neither would Florida, Louisana, or Tennessee. Maryland stood solitary and alone. The election would not go into the House. But lo! the Germans of St. Louis had such a horror of border ruffians that they would not vote for its di-rect representative, Buchanan, and voting for Fillmore gave the city of St. Louis to him. The Know Nothings were delighted nigh unto death. They spoke no more of "the a—d Dutch," but indulged in terms of deep affection respecting "our German fellow-citizens." And on the fact that St. Louis had been thrown for them by the German vote, they built a lofty fabric of calcula tians and in their mind's eyes had spoedlly carried Missouri, and in some mysterious manner, also Florida, and thus thrown the election into the House. A rumor to tais effect, originating n the Know Nothing papers of St. Louis, the tatement of which was placed on the Gazette bulletin board, caused an intense excitement yesterday, and the Fillmourners made a show of brightening up for a time, but they were speedily called upon by the unrelenting facts in the case te "dry up." FLORIDA .- It will be seen from our dispatches that Florida has voted for the Democratic ticket.
